Collection Person Contact Information

In line with our child collection policy, Liberty Panto will not release a child after rehearsal or production without the parent or designated pick up person telling us who they are there to collect.

Please let us know the name of the person who will collect your child from rehearsals.

Name _____ Mobile _____

If this person will change on a weekly basis please ensure to text or call the person taking the rehearsal and advise.

Otherwise this will result in a delay while we check with the parent to confirm the change in pick up person.

Person in charge of pickup MUST come into the rehearsal facility and make themselves known and advise who they are collecting.

Children will not be let out of the rehearsal building on their own.

Use of Media

Liberty Panto and its representatives will, on occasion, take photographs and digital recordings for promotional or archival use. These images or recordings may be used for promotional or informational purposes on our website, our Facebook page or on any other digital platform maintained by Liberty Panto. Images or recordings may also be used in print media, including local newspapers or in any other media, digital or otherwise, as deemed appropriate by Liberty Panto. Liberty Panto may also use these photographs and recordings for promotional or informational purposes in our print material, such as the show program and advertisement posters etc.

Liberty Panto is fully compliant with the Data Protection Act (2002) and any other relevant legislation regarding photography and recordings. Liberty Panto will never 'Tag' any child from the production on Facebook and will always use imagery or recordings in a contextual and responsible manner.

Liberty Panto may also record the production on any given night. Such recordings may be used for future promotional purposes and recordings may also be made available to members of Liberty Panto, cast, production crew, the production venue as well as to the children who participated and their parents.

Participation in the production is dependent on agreement that your child may be photographed or recorded for such activities.

I agree that my child may be photographed or recorded, as outlined above, by Liberty Panto, or under its supervision, for promotional, informational or archival purposes. In addition, I agree that my child's image may be used in programs, posters and other print media, as well as in digital media, as deemed appropriate by Liberty Panto. I agree that my child may be recorded during the production and I consent to my child appearing in the media.

The information provided on this form will be handled in line with Liberty Panto policies and will be shared only with those within the theatre group who need to have access to it.

I give consent for my son/daughter to take part in Liberty Panto activities to include classes, fundraisers, workshops and productions. I understand that Liberty Panto accepts no responsibility for loss, damage or injury caused by or during attendance on any of the company's organised activities except where such loss, damage or injury can be shown to result directly from the negligence of the Company.

Similarly, your child is insured under Liberty Panto insurance only while they are on the premises for rehearsals or production venues, or any designated place stated by Liberty Panto where we may take part in promotion of the group or for fundraising events.

Young children will never be left alone or with persons unknown to Liberty Panto during costume fittings or while in dressing rooms during the running of a production.

Membership cost is €140 for 1st child, €110 for any additional children. This covers Membership, Weekly Subs, Insurance, Costumes etc. Total amount to be paid by 31st May.

We're looking forward to working with you - Kind regards, Liberty Panto.
